Re: United States v. Doran Santiago Ramos,
20 CR. 4 (ER)

The application to travel internationally for work and for future applications to be approved at the discretion of Probation is granted.

SO ORDERED.

Edgardo Ramos, U.S.D.J.

Dated: 5/17/2023
New York, New York

Dear Judge Ramos:

With the consent of Probation, I write to request that Your Honor permit Mr. Doran Santiago Ramos to travel internationally for work. Currently, Mr. Ramos is permitted to travel domestically for work. Probation specifically requests that the Court allow it the discretion to approve any future international travel for work.

Mr. Ramos continues to work in marketing and brand development, as verified by the Probation Department. Mr. Ramos is based in New York City but can increase his pay by expanding his work in North America and Europe. The increased pay would assist Mr. Ramos in meeting his restitution obligations. According to Probation Officer Lee Kwok, Mr. Ramos has already begin submitting restitution payments.

If permitted to travel internationally, Mr. Ramos would still be required to seek approval of his travel arrangements and lodging in advance from Probation. As noted above, Probation consents to this modification.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Zawadi Baharanyi
